

Transport information

We have limited spaces available at the Peace Hospice for patients and visitors. We would encourage you to park off-site if you are able to or alternatively use public transport.

On street parking

There may be spaces available on the nearby Cassiobury estate but this is subject to availability. There are parking restrictions on Cassiobury Drive between 10.30am - 2.30pm (Monday - Friday), but outside those hours you may park there for free.

Our map gives local parking information which should assist you in finding alternative parking sites.

Car parks

There are over 4,500 car parking spaces in seven car parks in Watford town centre. The Kings, Queens and Palace car parks directly link to the Intu shopping centre (formerly the Harlequin) and have over 2,500 spaces for shoppers. These car parks are roughly a 10 minute walk away from the Hospice building.

Cost of parking varies dependent on the location of the car park. For all day parking choose Sutton car park as this offers better value for money. Gade car park also has a long term parking option.

By train

Watford is served by three train stations, Watford Junction and Watford High Street are main lines from London Euston. Watford Junction is on the West Coast main line to Milton Keynes and the midlands.

The third station is Watford Underground and is on the Metropolitan line on the underground system.

By bus

Bus stops are shown on the map and there are extensive bus connections available at Watford Junction.

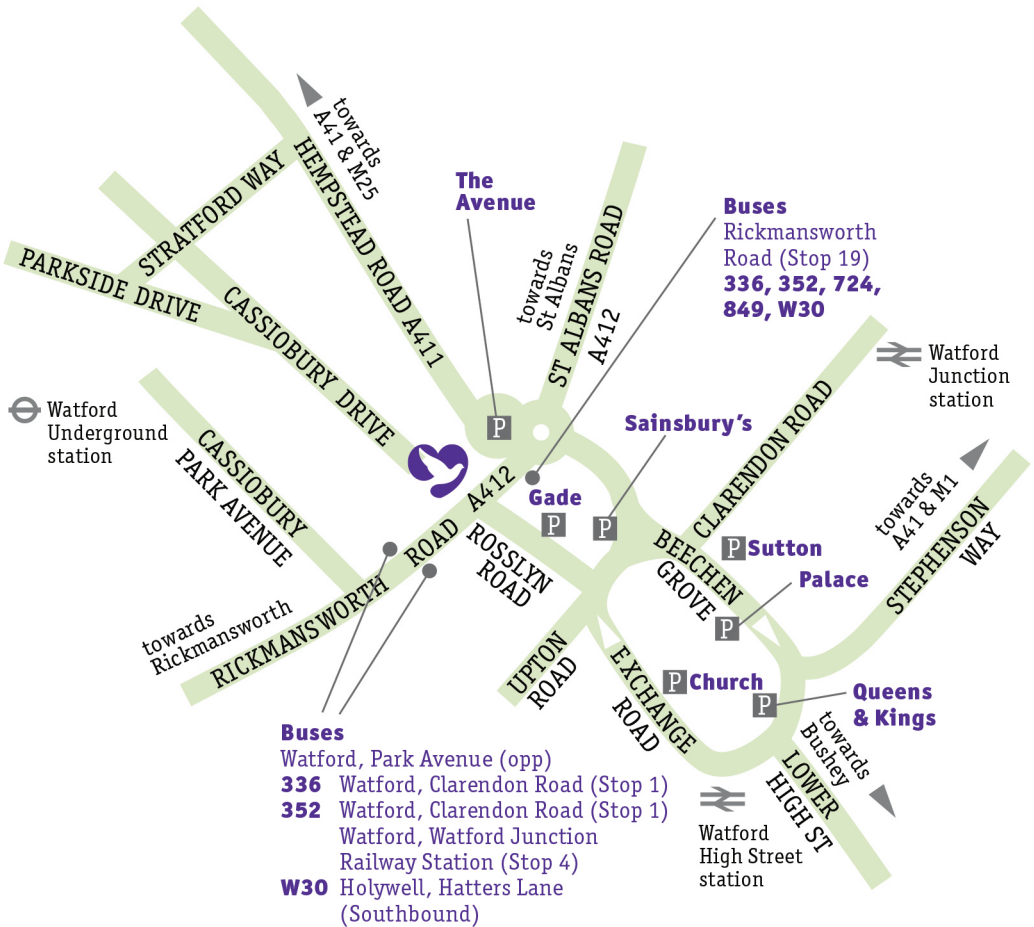

Taxi

There is a taxi rank at Watford Junction station and also at Watford Met Station.
