Guidance notes on completing the application form

- Before completing your application, it is important that you read the job description and person specification, along with the job advert, as these will contain full details of the post.
- Please ensure the form is either word processed or written in black ink as it may need to be photocopied as part of the recruitment process.
- Please ensure you specify the post you are applying for and the post reference number.
- If you use any continuation sheets, please ensure that you note the position and post reference number at the top of each sheet.
- Decisions about who will be shortlisted for interview will be based on the information given on your application form so ensure you answer all questions fully. For questions that do not apply to you, put N/A (not applicable) so that it is clear you haven't accidentally forgotten to answer a question. Please do not put "see CV for details" as an answer to a question. You may, however, include a current CV alongside your application form if you think it includes additional information that may be relevant to your application.
- Ensure you complete the supporting statement. It is important that you don't just repeat your job history here but cover the criteria required by the person specification and provide evidence of how you meet each criterion. Applicants will only be shortlisted if they show they can meet the essential requirements of the person specification which are assessed from the application form. Where there are a large number of applicants, the desirable criteria will also be used to decide who is shortlisted.
- Answer all questions honestly. You will be asked to provide original documents (certificates, right to work documents etc.) at a later stage should you be successfully shortlisted.
- Please note that the Personal Information and Equal Opportunities sections of the application form are separated from the main document and will not form any part of the decision making process or be seen by anyone involved in the process. It is important to state if you have a disability so that we can provide reasonable adjustments where necessary to help you throughout the recruitment process.
- Unfortunately we are unable to reply to every application. If you have not heard from us within 2 weeks of the closing date, please assume that your application has been unsuccessful on this occasion.
- Finally – make sure your application form reaches us by the specified closing date.

Requirements under the rehabilitation of offenders act 1974

Depending on the post applied for, the successful applicant may be subject to a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS, formally CRB) check. In compliance with the act, applicants for positions requiring a Disclosure and Barring Service check must declare all convictions or cautions, whether they are spent or unspent. Applicants for all other positions need to declare unspent convictions and cautions only. Please see the person specification or candidate information sheet for confirmation of whether the post for which you are applying is subject to a Disclosure and Barring Service check, and has therefore been identified as an exception to the act. If you are unsure as to whether a DBS check is required for this post, please contact a member of the Human Resources Department on 01923 330330.

Details of any convictions, cautions or pending court cases as detailed above, or any current police investigation should be attached to this application in a sealed envelope addressed to the Head of Human Resources. Failure to disclose such information could result in withdrawal of an offer of employment or subsequent dismissal or disciplinary action if employed. Peace Hospice Care aims to promote equality of opportunity, and only relevant convictions will be taken into account. A criminal record will not necessarily bar you from employment with the organisation.

Do you have any 'unspent' convictions within the meaning of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974?
yes no

If you have answered 'yes' to the above question, please provide details in a sealed envelope attached to this application and addressed to the Head of Human Resources.
